

Don't ignore it.

There are options for seeking confidential support and reporting harassment, concerns about someone, unwanted sexual behavior, hazing, abuse in a relationship, and stalking.

Confidential Support at CU

Office of Victim Assistance (OVA)

Support services (information, advocacy, short-term counseling) for undergrads, grad students, staff, and faculty in the aftermath of a traumatic, disturbing, or disruptive life event.

303-492-8855* | colorado.edu/ova

Center for Community (C4C) N450

*After-hours phone support available.

Report to CU

Office of Institutional Equity and Compliance (OIEC)

Addresses protected-class discrimination and harassment, sexual misconduct, intimate partner abuse, and stalking, and provides support and safety measures.

303-492-2127 | colorado.edu/oiec

3100 Marine Street, 2nd Floor

Report to Law Enforcement

Some of these behaviors may also be a crime and the police or district attorney could provide assistance.

Bias & Hate Crime Hotline (non-emergency)

303-441-1595

CU Police Department (on-campus)

303-492-6666 | colorado.edu/police*

*Anonymous reporting available.

City of Boulder Police (off-campus)

303-441-3333 | bouldercolorado.gov/police

Call 911 in an emergency or for immediate safety concerns.

Additional Confidential Support Services at CU

Faculty & Staff Assistance Program (FSAP)

Counseling and programs for university faculty and staff.

303-492-3020 | colorado.edu/hr/fsap

3100 Marine Street, 3rd Floor

Ombuds Office

Assists undergrads, grad students, faculty, and staff to informally resolve conflicts with others at the university.

303-492-5077 | colorado.edu/ombuds

Center for Community (C4C) N440

Counseling & Psychiatric Services (CAPS)

Offers a range of mental health services tailored to fit the needs of undergrad and grad students.

303-492-2277* | colorado.edu/counseling

Multiple campus locations

*After-hours phone support available.

Confidential 24-Hour Crisis Hotlines

Moving to End Sexual Assault (MESA)

Support for victims/survivors of sexual assault. Call the number listed below or text BRAVE to 20121.

303-443-7300 | movingtoendsexualassault.org

Safehouse Progressive Alliance for Nonviolence (SPAN)

Support and services for intimate partner abuse.

303-444-2424 | safehousealliance.org

Medical Services

Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner Program (SANE)

Boulder Community Health - Foothills Hospital

4747 Arapahoe Avenue, Boulder

303-415-8100 | bch.org

Call 911 in an emergency or for immediate safety concerns.