

IFC on The Hill Rush Guide

Spring
2024

About the IFC on The Hill

Dear Fellow Buff,

The IFC on The Hill Spring 2024 Rush is designed to help undergraduate students become the newest members in 1 of our 21 chapters. The recruitment calendar in our organization differs from other fraternity organizations at the University of Colorado in that we have provided ample time for students to settle into the college environment before they begin to participate in rush. It is for this reason our recruitment events and bid day occur later in the semester than the fraternities affiliated with the University of Colorado.

As an undergraduate owned and operated organization, our priority has always been accommodating the needs of students and improving their undergraduate experience. This is one of the many qualities of our organization that make us the most unique Greek organization in the country and certainly the strongest in Boulder. In this guide you will find important dates, chapter information, and tips about Spring 2024 Recruitment. Make the most of your recruitment experience, and we look forward to calling you our Brother & Cousin.

Sincerely,

IFC on The Hill Executive Board, 2024

Why Consider Joining?

- Know and interact with adult alumni who are advisors, trustees, counselors, members of the house corporation and more. These are business and professional men who volunteer their time to the men in each house.
- Have a “Big Brother,” an upperclassman, in the fraternity to be a mentor, a resource, and a guide during your transition into college and beyond.
- Be immediately involved in a variety of leadership, athletic, scholastic, service, and philanthropic activities, which are the core of our chapters’ programming.
- Have the opportunity to attend the organized, structured, well-planned, and safest social events in Boulder.

*We encourage you to sit down with your family and have a discussion about joining a

Rush Tips

- The IFC on The Hill has 21 chapters that range from <20 to 170+ members. Take your time finding out which chapter size fits best for you. Visit as many chapters as possible!
- A “COB” is a binding contract that guarantees you a bid to the chapter offering you a COB. Once a COB has been signed, you are not able to accept a bid to another fraternity.
- The CU IFC and other unaffiliated chapters have different bid days than the IFC on The Hill. If you accept a bid to a non-IFC on The Hill chapter, you are still able to drop out and accept a bid from an IFC on The Hill fraternity prior to our bid day on October 3rd.

Stay Safe & Have Fun
